hc1 Insights' Charlie Clarke Honored as IBJ 2023 Tech Exec of the Year

Publication honors those in top information technology positions who play vital roles in the success of their organizations

INDIANAPOLIS (Sept. 20, 2023) — hc1 Insights, the leader in identifying real-time insights and risk signals in complex laboratory data, announced today Charlie Clarke has been selected as an Indianapolis Business Journal \(IBJ\) 2023 Tech Exec of the Year honoree in the private company category. IBJ's Tech Exec of the Year program celebrates valued tech executives who play vital roles in making Indianapolis-area businesses, institutions and not-for-profit groups successful.

This year's honorees were celebrated at the Tech Exec of the Year / Tech 25 event on Tuesday, Sept. 19, 2023, at the Indiana Roof Ballroom, located at 140 West Washington St. in Indianapolis. Honorees will also be featured in the Sept. 22, 2023 issue of the IBJ.

As the healthcare sector continues to embrace digital transformation, Clarke plays an instrumental role in ensuring the hc1 Insights team innovates with the development, delivery, performance and maintenance of new products and solutions that help thousands of laboratory locations extend their capabilities to optimize operations, proactively engage with their customers and inform testing and treatment decisions for millions of patients.

Laboratories are being asked to extract actionable insights from complex connections among a large variety and volume of data, from lab orders and provider portal forms to panel and test compendia. Clarke's management style at hc1 Insights is built on collaboration with team members and partners and his dedication and ability to build relationships has enabled him to successfully manage, maintain and drive innovation for its growing roster of clients.

Clarke has the temperament and technical expertise to support the changing pace of the unique ecosystem hc1 Insights occupies between big healthcare and nimble, tech-enabled companies. With over 20 years of software development, program leadership and strategic service delivery in healthcare and the public sector, Clarke understands the urgency to continue to innovate and the game-changing role hc1 Insights can play in streamlining internal processes to solve healthcare's biggest challenges.

"The healthcare industry has an urgent need for solutions that improve the quality of care for patients in an economically sustainable manner. Charlie leads our efforts to develop solutions that achieve these objectives, improving the lives of millions of patients each year and fueling growth for hc1. Charlie is well-deserving of this recognition as IBJ Tech Exec of the Year,” said Brad Bostic, chairman & CEO of hc1 Insights.
